

Jesuit's church in Lodz - postprotestant, XIX c. Neo-Romanesque basilique with transept and front tower.

Since 1998 - conservation of brick elevation elements, stonework details and decorations made in the technique of casting.

Conservation works on the towers to recontract their original look.

Repair of roof construction and changing of the surface of the roof to zinc - titan plate.

