

St. Salome church and the Hermitage in Grodzisko near Skala - XVII c. pilgrimage place.

1999 - 2000 - conservation of XVII c. sculpture of an elephant carrying an obelisk. The sculpture was made in jurassic limestone. Works covered the conservation of the stone and fixing of the base for the obelisk threatened with falling.

Moreover the conservation of the group of 16 easle painings from the church was done.